May in Review

June 3, 2015

Sunny days signal the start of summer fun and the Tarrant Literacy Coalition is making a splash with lots of literacy events and trainings to help you plan your fall classes. Keep reading to learn about this fun and informative summer lineup!

Join us on Friday, June 26th at the TCC Opportunity Center to participate in our Fourth Friday Forum.

"Adult Education Roundtable"

These will be engaging, small-group discussions guided by experienced area literacy educators on multiple topics in English Language Acquisition (ESL), ABE, and High School Equivalency (GED). This event will provide a forum for teachers and program directors to network with other literacy educators and troubleshoot common issues encountered in their adult education classrooms.

What: June "Fourth Friday" Forum
When: June 26, 2015 9:00am -11:30am
Where: TCC Opportunity Center, 5901 Fitzhugh, Fort Worth

76119 (Enter through the building on the right, with the TCCOC sign on the front)

Why: To get great new ideas for your program and network with other literacy partners
